PROGRAM REPORTS

Mathrushri Ramabai Ambedkar Dental College and Hospital conducted ORIENTATION DAY PROGRAM on 24TH AND 27th SEPT 2019. The main goal of the orientation program is to introduce the student to professional course by acclimating them to the new surroundings. The orientation program comprises of a brief overview of the BDS & MDS program, institute and university rules and regulations; crisp presentation about the vibrant environment of the college which strongly encourages both academic and extracurricular pursuits. Several accolades received by students and faculty on national and international platforms were also highlighted. The program also briefed aspects pertaining to student life at campus with an emphasis on Safety and Anti-Ragging measures, which was followed by Q & A session to clarify parent's doubts. Following which students and parents were escorted on a guided tour of the college.

The WHITE COAT CEREMONY has been organized at MRADCH every year for the students before commencement of the academic year of III BDS and it signifies the student's change in roles and connotes the beginning of the student's clinical training and thus beginning the treating of patients with a promise to uphold the values and ethics of the profession while keeping patient's health as topmost importance. During this ceremony the dignitaries shall cloak the 3rd year students in the white coat and they shall be administered the "Hippocratic oath" for the first time. This initiative is intended to provide the students with well defined guidelines regarding the expectations and responsibilities appropriate for the profession. The White coat ceremony can be considered an important milestone in a student's life as it denotes a coat of responsibility over the head of doctors who are expected to be treating patients with utmost diligence, integrity, humility while keeping in check the professional ethics.

The INTERNSHIP ORIENTATION PROGRAM held every year for the newly graduated students before they start internship to familiarize the new interns with their tasks in clinics and their role in the community. This program enables the interns to appreciate the need for developing good communication skills for better doctor–patient interactions, to assess the psychosocial needs of patients while providing patient care, to identify the ethical and medico-legal issues involved in patient care, to enhance their written communication skills, to familiarize themselves with universal precautions and biomedical waste management, to identify their role in a multidisciplinary team; and to develop a sense of belonging, responsibility and accountability. This program also briefs about preparations for various exams in India as well as abroad as well inculcates research culture in young minds.

PROGRAM REPORTS

MathrushriRamabai Ambedkar Dental College and Hospital conducted an ORIENTATION DAY PROGRAM titled “ABHIMUKHYAM” FROM 9.30 AM TO 4.00 PM for the students of first year batch along with their parents before the actual beginning of regular academic activities after admission process is completed, the Academic committee of dental college send letter to the students to join the course. The main goal of the orientation program is to introduce the student to professional course by acclimating them to the new surroundings. The orientation program comprises of a brief overview of the BDS & MDS program, institute and university rules and regulations; crisp presentation about the vibrant environment of the college which strongly encourages both academic and extracurricular pursuits. Several accolades received by students and faculty on national and international platforms were also highlighted. The program also briefed aspects pertaining to student life at campus with an emphasis on Safety and Anti Ragging measures, which was followed by Q & A session to clarify parent’s doubts. Following which students and parents were escorted on a guided tour of the college.

The WHITE COAT CEREMONY held at MRADCH every year for the students before commencement of the academic year of III BDS and it signifies the student’s change in roles and marks the successful beginning of clinical years of training and thus embarking on treating patients with a promise to uphold the values and ethics of the profession while keeping patient’s health a topmost priority. During the ceremony the dignitaries cloaked students in the white coat and they were administered “Hippocratic oath” for the first time. This is intended to provide students with well defined guidelines regarding the expectations and responsibilities appropriate for the profession White coat ceremony can be considered an important milestone in a student’s life as it
